Our sincere sympathy is with Dr. A. J. Barton of Winston-Salem, N. C. in the the recent death of his wife.

7. K. Van, acting president of Shanghai Uniersity since the assassination of President Liu, is recently been elected president.

Free orange juice was served the messengers whith the Northern Baptist Convention at Los Angles by the vendors of "Sunkist" oranges.

Dr. Wilford Grenfeld, medical missionary to the Eskimos in Labrador since 1892, has after a brief rest in America returned to his work in the far north.

Dr. Frank Buchman won his case in the English courts which will allow him to continue to use the phrase "Oxford Movement." Members of the miversity objected, but the case was won on the ground that the name Oxford does not belong exclusively to the university.

Because of the uncertain health of Dr. John Lake who operates the Tai Kam Colony for lepers in China, Rev. H. C. Etter joins him in the operation of this hospital. He is a Canadian, graduate of the Louisville Seminary and Columbia University and has been a missionary in China.

All his Mississippi friends will welcome Rev. O. P. Estes back to the state. He comes to Picayune where he was once pastor. He has been a good many years in Louisiana and has been active as a leader in that state. He is an alumnus of Mississippi College and is greatly loved of the brethren.

Northern Baptists had 1,296,330 members in 1919 and 1,468,043 in 1939. In the year 1920-21 their gifts to benevolences were $9,818,813.00. In 1938-9 they had gone down to $2,470,203.00. The total budget for 1939-40 recommended is $4,068,548.00, plus $17,000 extra for foreign missions. These figures include foreign missions, home missions, state missions and city missions. Less than half of this is expected through undesignated funds.

Northern Baptists elected Dr. E. F. Adams as Executive Secretary of the Board of Finance and Promotion, succeeding Dr. W. H. Bowler who retires on a pension. Dr. Adams is a pastor in Buffalo, N. Y., son of a preacher and brother of Pastor T. F. Adams of First Church, Richmond, Va. Dr. E. A. Fridell, Dean of Berkely Baptist Divinity School was elected president of the Convention. There were 5,500 messengers and visitors enrolled.

The Janitor speaks: He came to the Editor for a contribution for his church. We noticed it was a Methodist Church and asked him about his church membership. He said he was once a Baptist, for many years a member of a Baptist church. But he said the church was "forever in a row," and he got tired of it and left and joined the Methodists. Maybe there is a lesson for the rest of us. "Seek peace and pursue it" is still a Bible doctrine. To be sure, "Buy the truth and sell it not" is also a Bible doctrine. Maybe we can have both if we try hard enough. We don't have to abandon one Bible teaching in order to keep possession of another. The kingdom of God is still "righteousness, peace and joy in the Holy Spirit."

THE BAPTIST WORLD ALLIANCE By A. L. Goodrich -----

An Atlanta version of Matt. 8:11 could well be, "And I say unto you that many shall come from the east and west and shall sit down with Truett and Rushbrooke and saw San Po Thin and Jauhiainen in Atlanta."

Crowds and crowds from every land, a rejoicing crowd, and orderly crowd, a blood-washed crowd, a singing crowd, coming from every clime captured Atlanta. Seventy-five years ago the Yankees took Atlanta after much bitter fighting and much bloodshed. Today the Baptists of the world took Atlanta and were taken by Atlanta.

Baptists are in Atlanta from everywhere; from the Congo and from Chicago, from Nigeria and from Nashville, from Burma and from Boston, from India and from Indianapolis, from Canada and from Cleveland, from Trinidad and from Texas, from Brazil and from Baltimore, from Australia and from Atlanta, from Denmark and from Dakota, from Hungary and from Hot Springs, from Wales and from Wisconsin.

If Atlanta led by that princely pastor, Dr. Louie D. Newton, general chairman, left anything undone in qualifying as perfect hosts, no one detected it.

Unusual for parades, the Alliance Parade started on time. Thousands of persons lined the streets for miles to give acclaim as the procession led by the World's foremost Baptist, Dr. Geo. W. Truett, wound its way from the capitol through downtown Atlanta to Ponce de Leon Park.

Hundreds of Baptist organizations largely local, were represented in the colorful demonstration that moved briskly (without a single mishap or traffic jam) to tunes of a dozen bands. State, national and city notables, including Governor Rivers, Mayor Hartsfield, Senator and Deacon George, Baptist leaders and "followers" from the four corners of the earth, rode in the parade.

Ponce de Leon Park was packed and jammed at 2 o'clock, when Dr. Truett formally opened the sixth meeting of the Baptist World Alliance. Dr. J. H. Rushbrooke, secretary, led in prayer and read best wishes of distinguished and public figures the world over including President Roosevelt, who made a plea for universal religious understanding.

In a letter President Roosevelt asserted that irreligion in wide areas of the earth has created such a threat that "you and I must reach across the lines between our creeds, clasp hands and make common cause." The freedom which we cherish—freedom of conscience; freedom of the press; freedom of education and freedom of assembly—and which is our priceless heritage out of the struggles of our forefathers, can be maintained and perpetuated only at the cost of eternal vigilance."

A letter from David Lloyd-George, former British Prime Minister, was among those read at the opening session. It said: "...throughout their long history, Baptists have always filled the front ranks of Evangelical Christianity. They have been pioneers of the Gospel in the darkest parts of earth and uncompromizing in their zeal—. Today, when that Gospel and that kingdom are being challenged by new and barbaric forms of paganism; the testimony of Baptists is more than ever needed.—"

Other messages: Rev. P. T. Thompson, M.A., President of the Baptist Union of Great Britian and Ireland: "—We look to our delegation to bring back to the churches of Great Britian and Ireland some store of the power which will be set free at the Congress..."

Dr. Charles Brown, former President of the British Baptist Union: "There is no company on earth to which I would rather belong than this goodly fellowship. No church approximates so nearly to the apostolic type. We have no altar save the Cross, and no priesthood but that of all believers—."

Rev. J. C. Carlisle, D.D., C.H., C.B.E., past president of the British Baptist Union, and editor of the Baptist Times: "—In time of crises and uncertainty it is good to remember the sure foundations of our holy faith and to proclaim our loyalty to the Lord and Master of us all who leads to ultimate victory."

Dr. T. R. Glover, of the University of Cambridge, England, past president of the British Baptist Union. "I hope that the meetings of the Baptist World Alliance will mean for all our Baptist Unions and Associations fresh convictions of our Baptist doctrines of Believers' Baptism and the Priesthood of all Believers, and fresh determination to maintain our witness to these doctrines—."

Here's a resolution passed at the Northern Convention which blows hot and cold at the same time. It reminds one of the funeral sermon of the colored brother who said, "We all hope Mose is gone where we know he ain't." Here's the whereas and resolved: Whereas, the trend seems to be in the direction of united efforts on the part of Protestant churches, be it Resolved, that we further all such efforts, provided only that they allow for maintaining our unique and historic Baptist principles.

Pastor Elton Barlow held his own meeting at Tangipahoa, La., where many were saved, and the church members cooperated heartily. He is also pastor of McCall's Creek Church in Mississippi where a Vacation Bible school was conducted July 10-15 with Mrs. Barlow as principal, assisted by the pastor and four fine young leaders and the superintendent of the Sunday school. An exceptional group of boys and girls attended. These and their parents can be depended on to respond in any service.

Districts 1 and 2 conducted their annual Junior Girls Auxiliary Camp at Castalian Springs July 11th, 12th, 13th, with 118 G.A.s and 22 teachers and counselors. Miss Wilma Bucy, Southwide W.M.U. Field Secretary was the guest speaker, four young ladies from W.M.U. Training School were on the faculty, Misses Frances Lippincott, Clara Brashears (recent graduates) and Misses Georgia Mae Ogburn and Miss Zadine Walton seniors next year. Mrs. L. E. Robinson was dietician; Mrs. J. A. Anderson, W.M.U. chairman of District 2 was present and in her helpful way meant much to all of us. Mrs. O. O. Smith, Young People's Director from District 2 had charge of the beautiful Coronation service on the lawn the second night of camp and worked with Mrs. G. A. Carothers, camp director, in making this a most successful camp. There was a varied program of Mission Study, Handwork, Recreation which gave the G.A.s three full, happy

The Bible school at Okolona lasted two weeks, and not one week as previously reported.

Evangelistic Singer R. L. Cooper was recently in good meetings at Inverness and Sturgis. He is available for other summer work.

Rev. W. H. Wood will be in a meeting next week with Pastor R. O. Bankston at Zion Church, Smith County, and requests prayer.

The meeting at Hazlehurst begins October 15. Pastor G. P. White will be assisted by Rev. J. W. Middleton of Clinton.

After an address on "Educational Evangelism" at the Northern Baptist Convention the congregation sang "O Beautiful For Spacious Skies!"

Dr. R. B. Gunter was for six days in a meeting with Pastor J. B. Middleton at Eupora. There were 17 additions to the church, most of them by baptism.

Singer Carlyle Brooks, Box 781, Atlanta, Ga., sang in the meeting in Roanoke, Ala. Preaching by Dr. J. A. Smith of Birmingham. Fifteen baptisms.

Preaching for Pastor L. D. Sellers, Dr. Judson Chastain has just closed a good meeting at Blackhawk Church, with twelve baptisms and several by letter.

Dr. F. C. Stiffler will broadcast August 2, 9, 16, 23 and 30 over the N.B.C. Red Network at 12:30 p. m. He is connected with the American Bible Society, and his addresses will be on "The Truth That Makes You Free."

We have just completed the annual revival at Clifton Baptist Church in Scott County. Our pastor, Sollie I. Smith, did the preaching. There were eleven additions—all on profession of faith and a genuine spirit of revival was felt by all.—Early Sessums, C. C.

On Sunday, July 16 the editor preached in the morning for Pastor D. I. Young at Anding, and for Pastor Robt. Martin at Concord Church in Yazoo County. These churches are preparing for their revival meetings in August. They listened well to the visiting preacher. We had the pleasure of being in the hospitable homes of brother and sister Kirk, and of Pastor Martin, and anybody who has been there is ready to go again.

Pastor A. J. Linton had J. J. Hedgepeth with him in a meeting at Union Church, Jones County, July 2-7. Congregations fair; weather intensely hot; preaching good. Additions four by letter and one by baptism. At Calvary Church, Jones County he had S. W. Monk with him from July 8 to 16. Largest congregations in the church's history; good singing with J. B. Lemly leading and Miss Ludin Monk at the piano. The church was revived but no additions during the meeting. The church has launched a building program. Prayer requested.

The Executive Committee of the Southern Baptist Convention reports receipts for June for all Southwide objects totaling $111,291.43; for the past six months $1,040,076.57, which is nearly $100,000 more than for the same six months of last year. Mississippi is tenth on the list, sending in $4,552.47, a little more than half of this went through the cooperative program, the balance being designated, or going through the 100,000 Club. Of the total given by all the southern states about three-fourths went through the cooperative program.

Brother J. A. Reid tells us that Fellowship Church, Lauderdale County, is making good progress since the Record is coming to their homes. A B.T.U. has been organized and is prospering under the presidency of Mr. Tom Lyle Snowden. The Sunday school is doing good work with Prof. Breland as superintendent. Revival meeting begins August 6 with Rev. Huston Fitzgerald as pastor assisted by Rev. Homer Roberson. The church was blessed by a recent visit from Rev. H. T. McLaurin who brought a great message from Chron. 7:14, and showed how we may come from under the depression. The church responded to the appeal to support Woman's College.

Dr. Hansford D. Johnson who recently resigned as pastor of Broadway Church, Louisville, Ky., becomes Dean of the School of Christionity in Mercer University, Macon, Ga.

Dr. Everett Gill who is retiring from his work as Southern Baptist missionary in Europe, will become pastor of the Wake Forest Church in North Carolina and chaplain of the college.

It is said that 25 years ago 46 per cent of the population of the United States were under twenty-one years of age. Today the percentage is only 36 per cent. Families are growing smaller.

It is said that the proceedings of the Missionary Council at Madras included celebration of the Lord's Supper. We are sure the Southern Baptist representative did not participate in this. But why should one be subjected to embarrassment of this sort?

When the Northern Baptist Convention voted to cooperate with the World Council of Churches the vote was so close that the vote was taken twice before the Chair could determine which side won. No time was given to debate the motion.

The report on Higher Education seems to have provoked more discussion at the Northern Baptist Convention than almost anything else. And the reason for it was that the brethren are seeing the whole business of Christian Education among Baptists threatened with extinction.

The Religious Herald tells of the baptism recently of Mr. J. Nunnaly Walker at Chatham, Va., aged 74 who is a great-great grandson of Rev. Jno. Weatherford who was imprisoned in Chesterfield County jail for preaching the Gospel in 1773 but continued to preach through the jail bars.

Maben: God has blessed us significantly in our summer's work. We had a most successful meeting in the early part of the summer. Rev. R. B. Patterson of Okolona led in the series of services. Ten were added to the church at that time. Two weeks later we began our Bible school which proved also to be a definite blessing to the young people of our church. We had a total enrollment of eighty-seven and an average attendance of sixty-one. At present we are in the midst of a building program. Won't you join us in asking God's continued blessings upon us as we continue to build for His Kingdom?—V. H. Hardin.

The Christian Century speaking of "How Much Religious Liberty," says with reference to eligibility to office: Legal eligibility does not, of course, mean that citizens are forbidden to take a candidate's religion into account in voting for or against him. The voter's religious liberty is as important as the candidate's-and even more important, because there are more of him. The candidate's liberty is protected when the law interposes no obstacle to his holding the office if he can get elected. It is senseless to say that religious liberty is infringed if a Mormon or a Roman Catholic or a Christian Scientist or a Holy Roller cannot get votes enough to elect him to the office to which he aspires. Citizens who vote for or against a candidate because of his religion are within their rights. They may be acting according to their convictions or according to their prejudices, but one of the rights of a citizen is to act according to his convictions even when other people call them prejudices.

In the Watchman-Examiner, Dr. Ryland Knight writes: A dozen years ago I went to a banker friend of mine and said, "I have some money I would like to invest somewhere." And he said, "These are good investments." I took his advice and put my savings into stocks and bonds. They are all gone. All I have are some bright-colored lithographs. About that same time there was a boy in one of our seminaries who would have d to go nome because he did not have money to finish his education. I found out about him and put some of my money in his education. Every now and then I get a letter from him telling of the work he is doing to advance the Kingdom of Jesus Christ, and every time I get one of those letters I thank God for an investment that endures. If you want to put your money where it will bring a return that will thrill your soul, here is your chance: Use it for Jesus Christ.

Northern Baptists affiliate with the Feder Council of Churches and voted recently to operate with the World Council of Churches, with certain restrictions as to conclusions not in his mony with Baptist faith.

Pastor W. R. Storie writes from Itta Bena the there were five professions of faith last Sund morning. Since he began his ministry of the months there have been 22 additions, twelve baptism. Good congregations, including the nig services; prayer meeting averaging about 5 once going to 101. There are about 200 reside members. The people are kind to the pastor. "I are working toward having the Record in even home."

The Atlanta Georgian gives a picture of P B. D. Gray, living at College Park, a suburb Atlanta, now 84 years of age, and some acc of his participation in the meetings of the B tist World Alliance. He was on the program the first meeting in London in 1905. The bo volume giving an account of that meeting his likeness and his address on missions. Gray also attended the meeting in Philadelp in 1911 and the one in Stockholm in 1923. F expects to attend every session of the meet in Atlanta this week. Dr. Gray was pastor a Clinton and at Hazlehurst, Miss.; also in Bir mingham. He was president of Georgetown Co lege 1901-3 and Secretary of the Home Boar 1903-28. He is now Secretary emeritus. He mar ried a daughter of Captain W. T. Ratliff of Ray mond, Miss. They make their home in College Park, Ga.

Whenever high praise is given or severe blame is expressed for anybody, it is well to consid the standard of judgement of the one who prais or blames. Just after a funeral once we hear one man say of the one who died, "I always di like Mr. T---. He was a man who wanted ever nickle coming to him, and did not ask for any thing more." A story is told on good authorit of two men who were members of the sar church, but who often came into unpleasant co flict. During a protracted meeting, all the mer bers were asked to shake hands to show the goodwill. One of these financial sharpers m the other down near the pulpit and tearfully said "Brother Brown, I always did like you becau you were saving and tried to have something When one says of another that he is "a go man," his standard of goodness has to be take into the reckoning. Paul says, "Happy is he that judgeth not himself in that which he approved

Anybody who by direct statement or impl cation leads young people to believe that drink ing liquor is a social prerogative, and that the only question is how much one can carry with becoming top-heavy is an enemy of young peop And that goes for the highest and lowest in the social or political scale. The governor of Michiga recently referred to a seven-year-old speech Mrs. Roosevelt in which she is said to have to the young people it would be necessary for then to know how much they could drink. The go ernor is an advocate of prohibition. For his ref erence to the first lady he was taken severe to task by the Attorney General of the United States. These gentlemen are both from Michigan They do not belong to the same political party, and doubtless the party spirit entered into the Attorney General's remarks. He evidently sought to make political capital of the incident. Governor Dickenson has nothing to apologize for or retract. He was speaking on a moral ques tion. He was denouncing the evils of high society, a thing which a lot of preachers are afraid to do. He was endeavoring to set up a high moral standard. And he was telling the truth. Nobody says he misquoted the lady. Her remarks are as much subject to criticism as other people's. Whe people in high places do wrong they should be told about it. Their guilt is in accordance with their high position. If Nathan rebuked David, then others cannot hold theirselves immune to criticism. Not to point out the short comings of people in high places is neither good religion nor good patriotism. Governor Dickenson is not the first to be attacked for telling the truth and will probably not be the last.

WORSHIP-WHY AND HOW Ernest O. Sellers

-0-Churches alone, amid the myrids of organizaions set up amongst men, profess to lead and to teach us how to worship God. "Worship is the adoration of God, the ascription of supreme worth to God, and the manifestation of reverence in the presence of God." (Sperry)

Public worship cannot be divorced from the personal acts and experiences of the worshiper. In the public assembly he will find aids to worship and means whereby to express himself but unless he brings to the assembly a sympathetic spirit and a longing to meet God, all of his acts, genuflections or words will be hollow mockery and of no avail.

Worship is an important part of the teaching responsibility of the churches. They must provide men with simple, credible and significant vehicles for worship. In so doing churches confirm their place, mission and influence in the world. Worship is an essential element of a cohesive society because worship was the very heart of the life of Jesus. Methods of worship are of aesthetic value only. The fact or act of worship is what is most important.

When churches and Christian workers lose faith in their own acts, or look upon worship as a means whereby to obtain standing, grace or favor from God, they need not be surprised over their loss of power, prestige or popularity. The multicplicity of avocations, so prominent in church life today, will not, as such, draw men to God. Unless our work and worship spring from grateful hearts all of our programs are futile. We are dead at the heart and no chaffing of the extremities will bring back to us the life that has departed.

There is a sad lack of literature upon this subject. At the beginning of our Christian labors we do not recall ever hearing the subject discussed. We followed such orders of service as were presented to us but had no idea as to the ideals or principles which may have governed those who prepared such orders and led in their execution.

It is devoutly to be desired that there may be a concentration of thought upon this vital subject to the end that we may intelligently and effectively enter into His courts with praise and make His praise glorious.

For one we welcome any and all discussion that will create a thoughtful appreciation of the Joy, dignity and solemn responsibility which rests upon everyone who in any manner whatsoever is called upon or attempts to lead others into the presence of the most Holy God. Baptist Bible Institute, New Orleans, La.

The Daniel Baptist Church will begin their revival on August 6th, running through the 20th, perhaps. The pastor will do the preaching and desires the prayers of all Christians. Plans for the annex are taking definite shape and work will begin at an early date. The Ladies Bible Class and the Men's Bible Class are leading in raising finances for the building, having already raised above $100.00. Watch the thermometers as they go up.—J. S .Deaton.

THE NORTHERN BAPTIST CONVENTION-V By Norman W. Cox

The sessions of the Northern Baptist Convention, in its annual meetings, are very interesting. Very little business is transacted in comparison with the Southern Baptist Convention. They customarily meet at least two days longer, and complain much for lack of time, and their program is as crowded as the Southern Baptists'. Considering the vast distances that have to be traveled, and taking into account the smallness of their membership, their sessions are largely

The programs are largely given to inspiration and information. They do have great programs. They show great ability in presenting what they want to get over graphically to those in attendance through pagentry and dramatic episodes. In addition to these, they comb the country for great speakers who are capable of delivering wonderful addresses. In this regard, their programs are interesting, and decidedly in-

Northern Baptists concern themselves much with reference to social problems, and the missionary emphasis. They overdo the former, in the judgment of many, and ring the bell with the

Their most notable weakness, from the Southern viewpoint, is the lack of denominational emphasis, the scant attention and little concern manifested for evangelism, and the inadequacy of their Sunday school and young people's program. They press too hard for the fruits of Christian experience and life, without making adequate provisions to produce it. It would be well to bear in mind the words of Jesus, when he said: "Do men gather grapes of thorns, or figs of thistles?" Their emphasis too little magnifies the things that will build up a church, increase its membership and enrich its life so that it will produce the goal they seek.

This is strikingly true in their lack of a young people's program. During the entire six and one-half years that I was pastor in the Northern Baptist Convention, the question of what would be done about the young people hung fire. The whole business was up in the air. They still have the B.Y.P.U., although many of the churches have Christian Endeavor organizations. They have nothing corresponding to our B.S.U. or B.T.U. program. For the entire Northern Baptist Convention, believe it or not, there are only four full time workers in these two fields, and these four, in addition to having to produce the essential literature for the young people's section of the Sunday school, also have the responsibility of oversight of the B.Y.P.U. That statement of fact alone, describes the scarcity of provision for properly developing the young

Again and again my heart bled within me as I saw the lack of denominational provision for the development of the young people in the churches. In West Virginia we had a very good B. Y. P. U. convention from the angle of attendance. I visited and addressed the Ohio B.Y.P.U. convention. The program was always filled with addresses and forums that dealt with things apart from the necessary mechanics of Baptist young people's organizations, life and program. The leaders in the local churches are seriously handicapped for the lack of essential materials. They have kept what to do about the young people in the air, because they have not been able to agree on what to do. The missionary societies want to dominate the young people's program for the sake of missions. The publication Society wants to dominate the program for the sake of religious education. Those who have the interest of the local church in mind, want a program that will help more in the building of the church. Always, the work itself suf-

NOT JEHOSAPHAT, BUT GOD E. B. Hatcher

God, the subject of the Old Testament, is the subject in the twelve verses of the July 30th Sunday school lesson. Do not dare, O teacher, to spend the precious moments talking to your class about Jehosaphat. Read those verses and here is what you will find:

1. "And the Lord was with Jehosaphat because . . ." Will you, in your teaching, next Sunday, ignore such a marvelous fact,-the fact that the God of the universe, our Heavenly Father, came down to be the companion of this 35-yearold king, Jehosaphat, because he surrendered himself to Him? Take your scholars deep into the treasure house of that fact.

2. "Therefore the Lord stablished the Kingdom in His hand." In other words, God was with Jehosaphat, not merely as a companion-though even that alone would have been glorious-but. also as a helper. The young king turned his kingdom-business over to God, and God took charge, and made it a splendid success, as long as he was loyal. Notice the things that God did for him.

3. "And his heart was lifted up in the ways of the Lord." That is, he was encouraged and stimulated, in his consciousness of the presence and help of God, to attempt to do greater, and yet greater, things for God-"in the ways of God."

4. "And the fear of the Lord fell upon all the kingdoms of the lands that were round about Judah, so that they made no war against Jehosaphat." Not the fear of Jehosaphat, but of God, because it was God, and not Jehosaphat, who then had charge of the kingdom.

God being with Jehosaphat pointed to Him who was to come and whose name would be "Emmanuel, God with us." "To Him give all the prophets witness."

How can our scholars ever gain the right ideas of God, or Christ, if we spend the time talking about Peter and Paul, as we did for a solid six months this year? How can we bring our much needed Savior victoriously before the attention of our drifting, panicky world, if our great Sunday school system (denominational and interdenominational) gives its chief time and attention to human characters instead of Christ?

"These (Scriptures)" said Christ, "are they that testify of Me, Me, Me." "Moses wrote of Me." In sending out His preachers and teachers He commanded: "Ye shall be witnesses unto, (not Peter, nor Paul, nor Jehosaphat) but Me." -BR-

Unity, Leakesville: We have just closed our annual revival meeting, in which we were richly blessed by the master. Our pastor, Rev. M. E. Hadden, was assisted by Rev. Gaston G. Mooney, pastor, Bethlehem Baptist Church, Laurel. The church was greatly revived-14 accessions, 12 for baptism. Our hearts were melted with the Gospel message. Several adults came claiming Jesus as Savior. Our S.S. and B.Y.P.U. is going fine. Attendance and interest is steadily increasing. Pray for us.-Paul Z. Ball.

We closed out a wonderful revival the 28th of June. The meeting ran for 11 days. Dr. R. J. Bateman, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Memphis, did the preaching. He brought some wonderful messages to us. We had a B.Y.P.U. study course just before the revival, about 40 taking the course. The work here is moving in a lovely way. The spirit of evangelism is dominant in our church. We had two additions to the church last night, one on profession of faith. We seldom go through a Sunday without someone joining the church. Our assistant, brother Edwards, is doing fine work with the choir and the B.Y.P.U., with the help of his lovely wife. Our church is taking on new life and everybody seems to be interested in the Lord's work. We had 11 additions to the church during the revival, six of them coming on profession of faith. Dr. Bateman is a wonderful preacher and everybody here loves him. He has been with us here in three revivals.-W. C. Stewart, Pastor.

THE SOVEREIGN SPIRIT

In the conversation of Jesus with Nicodemus there are many things to be learned. There is one which has probably not been emphasized as its importance deserves and demands. This is when Jesus says, according to the common version, "The wind bloweth when it listeth," or pleases. In our study of the Holy Spirit, or the passages in the New Testament referring to the Holy Spirit we cannot afford to overlook this one.

It is evident that Jesus realized the difficulty in teaching Nicodemus, or even in conversing intelligently with him about the things within the kingdom of God. You can't well talk with people about something that is utterly out of the range of their knowledge and experience. How would you go about talking with a Hottentot about radio or any electrical machine? Even so it is impossible to talk satisfactorily with a man who is not a Christian about the inmost vital experiences of religion. Spiritual things are spiritually discerned.

And so Jesus frankly says to Nicodemus until he is born again he cannot see the kingdom of God. Conversation and instruction on these things waits at the door of the new birth, spiritual birth, birth from above. Evidently this was said to make Nicodemus realize his utter helplessness and dependence on God before he can proceed an inch further. And Nicodemus did acknowledge that he was utterly at sea, puzzled, bewildered, not knowing which way to turn. Every man must come to this before there is any chance for spiritual enlightenment. Socrates always led his pupils by questioning to realize that they were hopelessly ignorant.

But Jesus goes further with Nicodemus than to make him feel his dependence. He tells him further that the Spirit on whom he is dependent for help in a Sovereign Spirit, that He helps where he will, works where he will, is not bound to come at the beck and call of men; that he has a right to do as he pleases and will do as he pleases; that man must recognize this, and must not think that the Spirit has to do what man asks him to do; that the Spirit is not under our direction, but that we are and must be under His direction.

The words of Jesus are, "The wind bloweth where it will." The margin of the American Version says, "The Spirit breatheth where he will." We must keep in mind that the word which Jesus used means either Spirit or wind. It is difficult to say which he meant. But there is no difficulty inunderstanding that he meant to teach that the Spirit of God is independent and sovereign. When we work for God, or preach the gospel, or pray for the Spirit, we must recognize that He is under no obligation to do what we ask, except such obligation as he may voluntarily assume. And the sooner we learn this and the more perfectly we recognize it the more sure He is to hear and answer us and work with us.

This sovereignty of the Spirit is further taught in Paul's first letter to the Corinthians, where speaking of spiritual gifts he says, "But all these worketh the one and the same Spirit, dividing to each one severally even as he will."

This does not mean that the Spirit does not work in response to our supplication, but it teaches us the attitude in which we are to come if we are to get what we ask for. Paul quotes from Moses, Ro. 9:15, "I will have mercy on whom I have mercy, and I will have compassion on whom I have compassion. So then it is not of him that willeth, nor of him that runneth, but of God that hath mercy... So then he hath mercy on who mhe will, and whom he will he hardeneth. It is only when one recognizes that he is hopelessly lost in sin and that God is not bound to save him, that he is ready to be saved.

The report of your meeting now will be news, but it will not be news a month from now.

STEPHEN'S DEFENSE

Stephen was the first named among the deacons chosen to assist the apostles in the ministry to the poor in Jerusalem. He was "full of the Holy Spirit and of faith." "Full of grace and power, he wrought great wonders and signs among the people." He preached in the synagogues; "and they were not able to resist the wisdom and the Spirit by which he spoke." He thus became the target for the malice of those who opposed the gospel. Failing in their efforts to answer his arguments they resorted to perjury and violence, and Stephen became the first martyr among Christians.

Men were hired to falsify in court against him. They charged that he had spoken blasphemous words against Moses and against God. They said he spoke against the temple and the law; that he had said Jesus would destroy the temple and change the customs which Moses had delivered to them. They approached just near enough to the truth to make their false charge effective for harm. Notice what were the charges and how Stephen met them.

Several things are evident. First is that Stephen seemed never to have thought of defending himself. He made not the slightest effort to deliver himself out of their toils or save himself from execution. His whole purpose was so to present the truth as to save his persecutors; and at the close of his address he bares his head to their assault and invites it when he charges them with the murder of Jesus, and says, "Ye who received the law as it was ordained by angels, and kept it not." This was not said in malice, nor in retaliation against their charge that he spoke against the law, but with the hope of bringing conviction of sin; for he prays that the Lord will not lay this sin to their charge.

You will notice the delicacy with which he meets a difficult situation. To a careless reader, his remarks may seem rambling. But not so: he faced hostility and bitterness. This must be assuaged if possible and it takes skill and time to do it. He goes back to common ground with them. Back to the beginning of their history, to Abraham. He dwells on Isaac and Jacob and Joseph, on the burial place of their fathers, to their travail in Egypt, until he comes to Moses. Here is the sore spot and he lingers on the story of Moses. And he makes it plain that Moses had a rather hard time with his contemporaries, and was not particularly popular with them. He makes a point of the fact that Moses told them of one who was to come; and Moses said they were to hearken to Him. Here he quotes Moses as justifying Stephen's claim that Moses would give place to the Messiah. The change from Moses to Jesus was no disloyalty to Moses, but the fulfillment of his prophecy and of his mission.

And as to the charge that Jesus would destroy the temple, Stephen quotes from their own Scriptures, from Isaiah 61:1 where the Lord says, "The heaven is my throne, and the earth the footstool of my feet: What manner of house will ye build me saith the Lord; or what is the place of my rest? Did not my hand make all these things?" Jesus had taught the same truth to the woman of Samaria. Paul afterward proclaimed it at Athens. The house is comparatively unimportant. It must not be made a substitute for the actual presence of God. Destroying the temple does not end the worship of God. It introduces a new era of spiritual worship.

But what do mad men care for argument, or reason or truth? They will have none of it. They were bent on blood. They are filled with hate. They will listen to nothing. They gnashed on him with their teeth; they stopped their ears and rushed upon him with one accord; they cast him out of their city and stoned him. But what his lips could not do his death accomplished. They laid Stephen's garments at the feet of a young man named Saul. And Saul was consenting unto his death. One of those who witnessed his death never got away from it. At last he found it in vain to kick against the goad, and Paul came to more than fill the place of Stephen in the kingdom of God.

KNOWING GOD

It has been some time since we made a seriou study of the books on psychology. They change with such kaleidoscopic suddenness and con pleteness that one has to observe closely to keep up with them. But we do a little observing of our own. And maybe the psychologists will catch up with us. It is our opinion that much if not all the knowledge or ideas which are attributed to what is called intuition are due to unconscio processes of reasoning. Impressions are made of men's minds of which they are not aware at the time, and deductions are made by processes which are not registered in the upper consciousness, or noted by the mind's superficial machinery. But these processes are just as real as if observed and tabulated. For example people have been in the habit of speaking of belief in God as just innate in man, natural to him, without reasoning. It is more probable that the proofs of God's existence and his working are being constantly, but unconsciously falling upon the sensitive mind of man, from childhood. These are etching their proof on his mind just as objects are pictured on a sensitive photographi plate. There is no debating the question. There is no argument pro or con. The facts speak for themselves, until they leave their impress on the mind which works naturally and unobserved, without noise or effort. This is why all men "naturally" believe in God. It is only when they begin to argue that they get confused. "Goo has not left himself without witness" as Paul told the simple pagans in Asia Minor. It is only when men begin to try to work out the problems with their own minds, as they did at Athens that God becomes "an unknown God." It is then that they feel after God, if perhaps they might find him. To all such God would reveal himself in the person of his Son. No man knoweth the Father but the Son and he to whom the Son willeth to reveal Him. No man hath seen God at any time. The only begotten Son who is in the bosom of the Father, He hath revealed Him. -BR-

Two were added to Mountain Creek Church, Rankin County in the meeting in which Pastor W. S. Landrum was assisted by Dr. R. B. Gunter.

Bethel Church, Newton County, plans to celebrate her hundredth birthday on Sunday, July 30. This is the home church of the late Rev. James E. Chapman, who served as pastor for more than forty-two years. Rev. W. E. Hardy of Scooba, Miss., is to preach the centennial sermon, and also to preach in the series of evangelistic services the week following. His boyhood days were spent under the influence of this great old church. Dinner will be served at the church, and an afternoon program will be given. All former residents of the community, members of the church and friends are cordially invited to be with us. Pray for us.—H. H. Bethune, Pastor.

In about two weeks our people in Mississippi will vote for officers from governor down to constable. A majority of the voters in Mississippi are church members. And a majority of the church members are Baptists. The Baptist Record does not believe in making church membership a test of qualifications for office. Nor would we vote for a man simply because he is a Baptist. The first qualification for any of fice is honesty. The next is good sense. A man cannot make a good officer who is lacking in either. A Christian owes it to God to vote for a man who is honest and who has good sense. An honest official will do his best to enforce the law. He will himself observe the law. It is as much ones duty to vote for honest and capable officials as it is to read the Bible and pray It is every man's duty to find out the record of those who apply for office, and vote for those who will enforce the law. If you vote for a man who does not enforce the law, you are responsible for lawlessness. Vote for the man who has character and a record of law observance and law enforcement. There are good men running for office. See that they get the support of good people.

Pastor H. E. Williams writes of a gracious revival in Roseland, La., in which he was assisted by Rev. W. A. Gill of East McComb Church. This is the county from which brother Gill came and the people came in crowds to hear him. The pastor says, "Words could never express the manifold blessings that the people received. It was an old time revival. Many came on profession of faith."

WOMAN'S COLLEGE ENDOWMENT CAMPAIGN

-0-Encouraging news has been coming in every day. A northeast Mississippi church has given $1,000, as has an east Mississippi church. A middle Mississippi pastor agrees to give a thousand, several churches have taken $500. Some cooperation, prayer and effort will put the campaign over the top.

The following telegram shows the fine spirit of many churches.

Frankly, Mississippi Baptists are waking up to the fact that Woman's College is a real asset and they are beginning to realize that what they do they MUST DO NOW. Next year will be too late.

At Grenada one pastor of a country field of five churches said, "I didn't understand until today how serious the need at Woman's College was. And I didn't see how any church could fail to give at least $100 under the note plan. Why only $5.00 will pay the interest on that for a year. I could pay that much. If I can't lead EACH ONE of my churches to take at least $100, I am a mighty poor leader."

Tuscola, though not the largest, is one of the most wide awake churches in Leake County. They have been fortunate in having good pastors and one of the best they have ever had is now pastor, Rev. A. A. Ward. The spring floods passed them by and fine crops are in prospect. To show their appreciation they have stood by their pastor and his good wife as he gives them a demonstration of perpetual motion. The Sunday school is ably led by Deacon R. B. McDonald. Plans are now on paper which call for more Sunday school rooms which will fill a pressing need. The W.M.S. is one of the livest in the county. The president is Mrs. F. N. Rives. Mrs. W. Q. Denson is doing good work as B.T.U. director. Tuscola is one of the several churches in this section having the EVERY FAMILY Plan.

Greenville

We picked the hottest day of the year (to date) to go to Greenville, but as usual, Pastor Smith and his workers had overlooked nothing to add to the comfort of the visitors who had come to lay the facts about Woman's College before the delta pastors. Ice water greeted us at the door, fans awaited us in the auditorium. Pastor Smith and the Greenville saints expect to do a worthy part in the Woman's College Endowment Campaign as they have done in the past. The Baptist Record once was not so widely circulated in the delta, but today counts its readers by the thousands in the delta.

Washington County's Record readers are listed as follows: LELAND 141; Priscilla 4; Greenville First4; Stoneville 2; Hollandale 6; Percy 2; Long 1; Elizabeth 7; Dunleith 2; ARCOLA 31; GREENVILLE TABERNACLE 37; Metcalf 1.

There were 13 from Australia attending the Baptist World Alliance in Atlanta, four men and nine women.

In the Latin American churches the number of baptisms has increased in the past five years from 1,803 to 2,600.

Pastor Sollie I. Smith had Howard Courtney from Louisiana with him in a successful revival in O'Zion Church, Franklin County last week.

The German government has banned all broadcasts of religious services, on the ground that the radio is a government institution. What about the public press?

From brother Henry Muse we hear that Cross Roads Church near D'Lo had a gracious four days' meeting with Rev. C. C. Bounds assisting Pastor T. W. Bishop, preaching twice a day, and every sermon a spiritual refreshing. There were two additions. The pastor and visiting preacher work well together, and everybody went away feeling it was good to be there.

In general the resolutions passed by the Northern Baptist Convention show evidence of very careful study and diplomatic endeavor to so express themselves as to avoid coming into conflict with adverse opinions. There were apparently people of divergent views on the committee or in the Convention who had to be considered in securing such statements as would get by without awakening opposition.

Pastor J. L. Moore is rejoicing in the blessing of God in his churches. Rev. D. L. Hill of Holly Springs helped him again this year at Freeny. There were fifteen additions, eleven by baptism. At Standing Pine he was assisted by brother Hendricks of Enterprise. Four were added by baptism and two by letter. At Rocky Point brother Moore preached in the meeting. Several joined by letter.

At Williamstown, Mass. will be held August 27 "Institute lations," attended by Protestants, Catholics and to September 1 an Jews. The purpose is said to be to seek a method of working together to preserve just liberties of all, etc." How can Catholics have the face to participate in such a conference when they have never failed to interfere in any country with religious liberty, where they have the power to do it?

ADULTERY BY MARRIAGE, SEPARATION— DIVORCE AND REMARRIAGE

"Thou shalt not commit adultery." Ex. 20:14, and Deut. 5:18. What is adultery? The having two or more wives, or husbands at one and the same time.

Jesus said, "But I say unto you that whosoever shall put away his wife, saving for the cause of fornication, causeth her to commit adultery: and whosoever shall marry her that is divorced, committeth adultery." Matt. 5:32.

Please note the last declaration above, "Who-soever shall marry her that is divorced, committeth adultery." Now did Jesus tell the truth? I say positively, he did. This same Jesus said, "I am the way, the truth, and the life." John 14:6. Please note Jesus declared he was "the truth," if so then, if any one marries who is divorced, or marries one that is divorced, do not both parties to such a marriage commit adultery? To be sure they do.

Again Jesus says, "And I say unto you whosoever shall put away his wife, except it be for fornication, and shall marry another, committeth adultery: and whosoever marrieth her which is put away doth commit adultery." Matt. 19:9.

Now according to the declarations of Jesus a man, or a woman, has only one ground, fornication, for separation, either one from the other, but in such cases neither has a Biblical right to remarry, as long as the divorced husband or wife lives.

God is "no respector of persons," therefore he has not one law, or standard for a man, and another for a woman, and since if a man "Marrieth her that is divorced committeth adultery," likewise we may well say, if a woman marries a man that is divorced she commits adultery; it has ever been a saying, "It is a poor rule that does not work both ways," so whatever is wrong for a woman is also wrong for a man, or whatever is right for one is also right for the other.

I grant you, there is one scriptural ground for separation, but none whatever for remarriage of either party to a divorce as long as both divorced parties live.

Some insist, from the reading of Matt. 19:9, "And I say unto you, whosoever shall put away his wife, except it be for fornication, and shall marry another committeth adultery; and whosoever marrieth her that is put away doth commit adultery," it gives the innocent party a right to remarriage.

I admit if you take this verse, except the last clause of it, and give no consideration at all to other scripture's treating on the subject, it does give the innocent party a right to remarry, but when duly considered along with the other scriptures it will be found clear that it gives no such right.

Now read Mark 16:16, "He that believeth, and is baptized, shall be saved," and you will see if you take this verse alone and consider no other scripture's treating on salvation, that without baptism there is no salvation, but when you give due consideration to the other scripture's treating on salvation, you will find, it is belief that saves, and not baptism, likewise if we give due consideration to other scriptures' treating on separation we will find that fornication gives a right to separation only, and no divorced party has any right to remarry as long as the one separated from lives.

Again Jesus speaks, "And he sayeth unto them, whosoever shall put away his wife, and marry another, committeth adultery against her, and if a woman shall put away her husband, and be married to another, she committeth adultery." Mark 10:11-12.

Did Jesus know what he was talking about? To be sure he did. Did he here state a fact? Yes indeed, he knew, and he told the truth.

Then it is clear if either party to a separation shall remarry during the life of the one separated from, whether divorced or not divorced, the one so marrying commits adultery, and the man, or woman who marries a divorced person also commits adultery.

Jesus speaks once more, "Whosoever putteth away his wife and marrieth another, committeth adultery: and whosoever marrieth her that is put away from her husband committeth adultery." Luke 16:18.

Surely you will agree with me that Jesus was too good, and too true to tell a lie, or in any way mistreat us, and that he was also too wise to make a mistake; then since he did not tell a lie, does not mistreat us, and makes no mistakes in his dealings with us, it must be accepted as a fact, that any man, or any woman, who marries one with a living wife, or husband whether divorced or not divorced, commits adultery, and both parties to such marriages are adulterers.

The having a divorce does not change the matter at all, from a Bible point of view. It simply, from civil law, relieves the parties from further liability toward each other.

Jesus gave these precepts to his disciples, and on down to all the world, along with the highest possible standards of Christian ethics.

Jesus said, "Upon this rock I will build my church, and the gates of hell shall not prevail against it." Matt. 16:18, and then, referring to the church, Paul said, "That he might present it to himself a glorious church, not having spot, or wrinkle, or any such thing; but that it should be holy and without blemish." Eph. 6:27.

Now, may I ask, can a church with adulterous members, or ordaining adulterous preachers, or calling adulterous preachers to be their pastors, be said to be "without spot, or wrinkle, or any such thing; holy and without blemish?" Dear reader, please answer this question deep down in your own soul. Also please remember, it is one thing to have your name on the church roll, and another thing to be, in reality, a part of the church.

So we have handed down to us from our forefathers, a pure high standard of Christian ethics, and we have no right whatever to lower it.

When this writer was but a boy, for a divorced party who was a member of the church, and whose companion divorced from was still living, to remarry was for such party to be dismissed from the fellowship of the church. Were the churches acting right in so dismissing such members from their fellowship? I think they were, and if so, surely it is but right for our churches to so dismiss them now.

Churches admitting to, or maintaining in, their membership people who are living in adultery through divorced marriages, are thereby placing their stamp of approval on, and encouraging, careless marriages, separations, divorces and remarriage, which is adultery, and are thereby lowering the Baptist standard of Christian ethics. Also ministers who, knowingly, perform marriage ceremonies for a divorced person, or will assist and take part in the ordination of a minister, who has two living wives, or is the second living husband of his wife, are also placing their stamp of approval on separation, and adultery through divorced remarriages. Likewise churches calling for the ordination of preachers living in such adultery, or calling to their pastorate ministers who are living in adultery through divorced remarriages, are surely doing their bit toward the lowering of the Baptist standard of Christian ethics, and inviting God's displeasure on themselves.

Paul says, "For the woman which hath an husband is bound by the law (of God) to her husband, so long as he liveth, but if the husband be dead, she is loosed from the law of her husband. So then if, while her husband liveth, she be married to another man, she shall be called an adulteress: but if her husband be dead she is free from that law; so that she is no adulteress, though she be married to another man." Rom. 7:2-3.

The word "dead" in Rom. 7:4, refers to being "dead to sin" as in Rom. 6:2, 7 and 11, and can in no wise be considered as being dead in the flesh.

The words of Paul were inspired words, and surely no one will accuse inspiration of being mistaken.

Again I must say, if the above declaration of Paul is true of the woman, (and it is) it is also true of the man, since God has the same standard for men as for women.

Paul also says, "Let not the wife depart from her husband, but and if she depart, let her remain unmarried, or be reconciled to her husband; and let not the husband put away his wife." I Cor. 7:10-11.

"The wife is bound by the law as long as her husband liveth; but if her husband be dead, she is at liberty to be married to whom she will; only in the Lord." I Cor. 7:39.

Again we find, from the above declarations of God's own word, that there is nowhere a Scriptural ground for remarriage, so long as the one divorced from is living.

"Now the works of the flesh are manifest, which are these: adultery, fornication, uncleanness, laciviousness, idolatry, withcheraft, hatred variance, emulations, wrath, strife, seditions, heresies, envyings, murders, drunkenness, revellings, and such like: of the which I tell you before, as I have told you in time past, that they which do such things shall not inherit the kingdom of God." Gal 5:19-21. Now please take notice, "Adultery" heads the above list.

Paul also says, "If a man desire the office of a bishop, (pastor) he desireth a good work. A bishop (pastor) then must be blameless, the husband of one wife, vigilant, of good behaviour, given to hospitality, apt to teach." I Tim. 3:1-2.

Surely one cannot be blameless who is an adulterer, and the above passage says in plain words, "the husband of one wife" and since God has the same standard for men as for women, surely we are justified in saying he also must be the only living husband of that one wife.

In the light of these scriptures, how can we place our stamp of approval on, and lend encouragement to adultery through divorced remarriages, by admitting to, or maintaining in our membership, people who are parties to divorced remarriages, or calling to, or assisting in the ordination of, or of calling to the pastorate preachers who are connected up in divorced remarriages?

Surely any one who will carefully study these Scriptures can see that divorced people have no Scriptural right to remarriage as long as the companion divorced from lives.

It is also clear that ministers have no right to perform marriage ceremonies for any one where either party is a divorcee, and the majority of our ministers will not do so knowingly.

I have been told that of the six leading churches operating in America, including Catholics and Episcopalians, the Baptists are the only ones that will set apart to the Gospel ministry a man who has two living wives, or one who is the second living husband of his wife, and further that if a minister of any of the other churches becomes a party to a marriage through divorce he is dismissed from the ministerial office.

Surely we Baptists cannot afford to place a lower standard on Christian ethics than the other churches do.

Also let us remember we are dealing with God's word, and God's word is truth.

Jesus said, "For this cause came I into the world, that I should bear witness unto the truth." John 18:37.

Surely all will agree that Jesus knew the truth, and who will dare to say that Jesus did not tell the truth when he said, "He that marrieth her that is divorced committeth adultery?"

I hope, dear readers, you will carefully and prayerfully study all these Scriptures, and my brief remarks on them, and remember every Scripture used is the very words of Jesus, and the inspired apostle Paul, hence we know they are God's words, therefore let us with Paul say, "I believe God, that it shall be even as it was told me."

If our preachers and churches will deal with these matters as our duties demand of us, let it be known assuredly that we will not approve of, or encourage separation, divorce and remarriage, by receiving to, or maintaining in our membership, or by calling to, or assisting in the Mississ

Personal Service

I. Personal Service Defined.

(a) Personal Service is Service; it is work with a purpose—that of lifting our own community to more Christ-like living. It is "presenting my Saviour in my community." It is Social Service with the Gospel as its motive and salvation as its aim.

We as Southern Baptists are thinking especially about evangelism this year, personal service is winning people to Christ, building them up in Christ and sending them out for Christ.

(b) It is Personal—There are no proxies if it is personal service—The plan "seeks not yours but you" primarily. Each individual woman must show by her attitude and activities in her our community that she loves Christ and believes His Gospel. Mrs. Lawrence says in her Guide Book that "It will help to define personal service if we ask ourselves when undertaking any task, 'Does this help me to present Jesus as Saviour to some one?'". Let us measure by this motive our deeds of personal service and see if it will not give a deeper meaning to us and to those who seek to help.

II. Biblical Background for Personal Service.

1. What is the aim of Personal Service? "That the world may know," John 17:23.

2. Who set the ideal for Personal Service?Jesus, who went about doing good. Acts 10:38.(a) "It is enough for the disciples to be as His Lord," Matt. 10:25.

(b) I beseech you, therefore by the mercies of God that you present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy acceptable to God, which is your reasonable service." Rom. 12:1.

(c) "Let your light so shine before men that they may see your good works and glorify your father which is in heaven." Matt. 5:16.

(d) "Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these, my brethren, ye have done it unto me." Matt. 25:40.

III. Aim of Personal Service.

Someone has said that the threefold aim of personal service is (1) soul winning, (2) manifesting Christian fellowship and (3) development of Christian service. Thus the chief channels through which personal service is conducted are soul-winning and community activities. Soul-winning is the most important task. It is the heart of personal service. Without this heart our community activities are lifeless and dead.

Mrs. Whitaker, our Southwide Personal Service Chairman, says—"It is the glory of woman that she was sent into the world to live for others rather than herself. How like Christ who came not to be ministered to, but to minister: and, when His love reigns in the heart, we shall follow His example. Our Saviour was deeply serious and intensely in earnest. The life of those who follow Him will be full of earnest purpose: they will have a sense of personal responsibility. The hearts and minds of the sick, the poor, the sorrowing, the truly human, all demand a living God who has revealed Himself in living acts.

We have such a Saviour to follow and to show to the world. Jesus said, "Follow me."

Through all our work, we must have this desire, this aim—to make Christ known in His regenerating power!

Paper given by Mrs. F. M. Purser at a circle meeting of Oxford Baptist Church on Personal Service.

New Albany Baptist W.M.U. Young People Enjoy Focus Week

Beginning Monday the young people gave some very interesting "Radio Flashes" to the ladies of the W.M.S., after which the intermediate girls served punch and cookies to the entire crowd.

Tuesday—Personal Service Day; the Sunbeams carried fruit and flowers and gave entire program out at the county home. Junior G.A.'s carried flowers to the hospitals. Intermediate G.A.'s visited shut-in. The Royal Ambassadors took some magazines to boys in the hospitals and Y.W.A. visited the sick.

Wednesday evening, all the auxiliaries gave a mission program for the Royal Service magazine.

Thursday, all met at the church except the Sunbeams, who traveled from home to home in study of their book, "The Traveling Story Hour." The Y.W.A. assisted in telling the stories. The R.A.'s studied their manual, taught by Mrs. Walker.

The Junior G.A.'s were taught Patricia of Roumania by Mrs. John Neely.

The Intermediate G. A. "To Be Continued," taught by Mrs. J. I. Rakestraw. At the noon hour all enjoyed a fish dinner.

Friday evening, all met back at the church where Dr. F. M. Purser, of Oxford made a very splendid talk on "Their Mission," to the young people.

Sandwiches, cake and a delicious drink was served by the intermediate girls and their leader, Miss Mary Nesbet. Over fifty awards will be received from the tests taken in the Mission Study during the week.

BOOKS

Our Baptist people have a rich treasurehouse of literature and it is increasing in volume and is rich in quality. Here are some volumes from the Zondervan Publishing House of Grand Rapids, Michigan. First is "Revival Messages" of Dr. B. H. Carroll. These have been put into a new book through the labors of Dr. J. B. Cranfill and Rev. J. W. Crowder. There have been few so great preachers among American Baptists as Dr. Carroll, and those who get this book will have a treasure house of gospel truth.

Another is "Ye Must Be Born Again" by Hyman Appleman who is being used of God today in the salvation of souls as almost no other man in our country. Everybody will be glad to know something of the sort of sermons he uses, and many ought to be brought to the faith of Christ by reading these sermons from a Christian Jew.

A third volume is by F. B. Thorn, D.D., pastor of Second Baptist Church, Houston, Texas. The title is "The Higher Path." There are twelve sermons on vital and practical Christian themes.

A fourth volume is on "The Personal Evangelism of Jesus." This is by F. V. McFatridge who had the good fortune to marry a Mississippi girl. His work has been mostly in Texas. The theme is well chosen for effective treatment. Jesus is shown dealing with a dozen different types of people, and the Savior of all. It is bound to be helpful to preachers and others.

The fifth volume is different. It is not by a Baptist. It is "Stories of Popular Hymns," by Kathleen Blanchard. Such a book is not only sure to be interesting, but will be helpful to people who make use of these hymns in worship. They will be used more intelligently and sympathetically.

Each of these books sells for $1.00 except the one by Dr. Carroll, which sells for $1.50.

The Baptist Courier of S. C. has been granted license to operate Educational Tours, by motor, rail or water to all parts of the U. S. A. You can stay at home and take an educational tour via the Courier, or by the Baptist Record.

THE LIGHTER SIDE OF THE BAPTIST WORLD ALLIANCE By A. L. Goodrich

When we asked the bell hoy at our hotel why so many people were in town he replied, "The Baptist ALLOWANCE is meeting here."

A janitor at the State Capitol, surveying the litter thrown down by the crowd awaiting the World Alliance Parade said, "The World AVAL-ANCHE Parade is about to start."

A bell rang one minute before the speaker's time was up. It then rang when time was up and continued to ring until he quit speaking. This plan might well be adopted by Mississippi Associations, Conferences and Conventions.

Ten thousand people sat under a broiling sun for two hours Saturday afternoon and Sunday afternoon. Many men tied handkerchiefs over their heads when Old Sol bore down.

Quite interesting were the colorful dresses and crowns worn by two girls from Riga, Latvia. They wore colored skirts with blue and red woolen jackets. The crowns were red with crystal beads and are the usual costume for unmarried women.

Autograph hunters reached an all time high before and after each program. Foreign visitors in their native costumes were almost mobbed and forced to sign autograph books, etc., until cramped hands offered excuse for quitting.

As a joke, James Goodwin of Hastings, Florida, was dressed up as a Hindu. Within five minutes he was mobbed by autograph seekers. He doesn't plan to try the same stunt again.

Most of the roll call addresses by represent tives from various lands were well read.

According to a radio announcer the crowd is the most orderly ever to come to Atlanta. The New Testament declares that there should be a difference.

Dr. Truett: "Let the speaker be prompt to come to the platform and prompt to quit."

The only smoking we saw during the session in the throng of 40,000 was by a colored brothe from Tennessee and an Atlanta newspaper reporter.

First Church, Oklahoma City, W. R. White pastor, is now giving $1,000 a month through the Cooperative program. They have 6,000 members.

Editor Solomon says that in Florida during prohibition days there were seven federal enforcement officers. Now there are 127, and the number of judges has been increased to meet the need.

One man out of the state criticized the Record for warning the churches against the employment of a pastor who did not believe in and proclaim the Bible as inerrant. We have no apology for so doing. We had just as well be on good terms with a man who poisons all the wells in the country as a man who destroys faith in the word of God.

In order to discredit the Bible someone says every now and then, there was a church before there was any Bible, with the implication that the church can get along without the Bible. Like most of the things the Modernists tell you, this statement is not true. There was no church before there was a Bible. Jesus constantly quoted from it, and always recognized it as the infalible word of God. He said "One jot or one title of the law could not be broken"; and "The heavens and the earth shall pass away but the word of God cannot be broken." The man who is always trying to belittle the word of God is a dangerous man.

FRIENDSHIP SONG

Everybody needs a bit of friendship, Friendship that is tried and true, Everybody needs a bit of friendship, Whether skies are grey or blue.

Everybody, everywhere must have it, Every day the whole year through. Everybody needs a bit of friendship, And I need you."

I am much in sympathy with Mrs. H. T. Countiss and family of Pittsboro, Miss., in the death July 13th of the husband and father, Mr. H. T. Countiss. He was a fine gentleman and was loved by all. May the Lord bless the wife, children and others in their great grief. They are some of the finest members of Pittsboro Baptist church.

Rev. O. P. Breland of Columbus, Miss., had an eye operation recently. It was painful, but his wife reports that he is much improved and tion August 21st. He and family come South to visit relatives, and will visit the writer. The other children will accompany them. I'm counting the days. I expect to return home with them for a visit.

Someone said: "He who knows least is the noisest about his views."

The closer one lives to God the less he sees to boast about his goodness. Only those who live afar off from God can boast of their "perfection." "If I glory, I will glory in the Cross."

Miss Ora B. Ligon of Pittsboro Baptist Church says: "Our recent revival was really a revival. The services were so good, and I believe the Christian people were really revived and touched deeply by the fine sermons that brother Middleton gave us. His sermons reveal that he lives close to God."

These twelve or more months in the hospital have been the greatest period of schooling I have ever had, with God as teacher. They have also been among the happiest of my life. I have not really had a pain since my operation. This may sound hard to believe by many, but I'm not given to telling falsehoods.

Dr. Osmond P. Breland, teacher of zoology in the University of Texas visited me recently. He is my great nephew, son of Rev. O. P. Breland of Columbus, Miss. He seems destined for a great career, as he is little more than 30 years old.

ENTERPRISE REVIVAL

The meeting at Enterprise with brother Deb Stennis as pastor, was a delight to my very soul. I have never gone into a meeting where finer preparation had been made. In all of my ministry I have never found a more noble spirit than I found in Pastor Stennis. He is one of the most ardent men of prayer that I have ever met. He is ceaseless in his efforts, tireless, and fearless in his task, and deeply devoted to God and His cause. His people love him dearly. Not only do the Baptists love him but the entire community has the utmost respect for him and his leadership.

The people both young and old, responded in a marvelous way. The evening prayer services were usually well attended. Quite a goodly number remained most every night for prayer service. Several nights we prayed until eleven and twelve o'clock.

We had wonderful demonstration of what God can and will do for His people when they really pray persistently and earnestly. Certainly no man deserves any credit for what was accomplished, but thanks to God for His marvelous power to save men from the clutches of sin. He is due all praise for it. Some of the hardest sin hardened cases that I have ever seen won came to Christ with deep conviction and a complete surrender.

Thirty-five were added to the Baptist Church and twelve to the Methodist Church. Both morning and evening services were well attended.

I was royally entertained in the home of brother and Mrs. M. C. Therrell. I have never found a more devout Christian family. It was a source of joy to be in their home for the entire ten days.

Of course during the day we were entertained in the different homes for both the noon and evening meals. My! how those good people do feed. I have never found people more hospitable and more anxious to do the very best they could to make everything so pleasant. The good pastor and his wife together with the other pastors of the town and the visiting minister were beautifully entertained in the spacious homes of that dear old typical southern town. They have culture of the purest type, both social, moral and soul.

May the Lord bless this good pastor, his good wife and precious little girl and all the dear friends of Enterprise.—D. W. Nix.

ROSE HILL

Five days of intensive evangelistic efforts came to a close Thursday night. The spiritual blessings and public professions brought joy to many hearts. For five days large crowds came to hear the great messages brought by Rev. W. H. Wood of Clinton. The messages were backed by the prayers of Christian people and were spoken boldly, clearly and in power. The church and pastor were greatly benefitted by the services rendered by brother Wood.

The singing was conducted by brother Joe O'Neal. His selection of songs and leadership were of the best. The people proved their joy in singing the spiritual, uplifting songs that had messages for the soul of man.

The soil had been well prepared. For months the minds and hearts of the people had been directed towards the coming revival. A religious census revealed some facts that should be known. The hearts of the members of the W.M.S. became burdened and they said, "We are going to have a week's prayer meeting for the revival." Then the brethren joined the ladies. They kept on praying through the revival. The Lord heard their prayers.

Brother J. C. Butler and Rev. Jimmie Roberts did their best to make the revival what it should be. Others joined them. Many said they were proud of their pastor and say that they are going to do more for the Lord. Brother Butler is superintendent of the Sunday school and teacher of the young people's class. His soul is on fire for the Lord. This is true of brother Roberts who is a young pastor.

Fourteen were baptized Friday morning. One is waiting for baptism. To our Saviour is due all the praise and glory.—R. O. Bankston, the community attended the services and a goodly number from othcommunities. There was a junior choir of 54 that took great interest in singing the songs that brother Ward taught them. He can truly be recommended for work among young people.

Brother Odom also can be recommended for rightly dividing the the word of truth. He has sought and received wisdom of the Lord for he brought us some powerful, enlightening and heart-searching messages.

There have not yet been any visible results from the meeting, but we know that God's words do not return unto him void.

We are looking forward to a monthly preaching service here in the future, and we ask the prayers of all Christian people for a great harvest here.-Mrs. Bryan Hudgins.

The Children's Circle

MRS. FRANCES LIPSEY STEELE

(Address all communications to Mrs. Frances Steele, Magee, Miss.)

My Dear Children:

Not many nights ago our little family was sitting out in the yard enjoying the soothing, restful dark-ness after the sultry heat and glare of the day. Our only light came from the myriads of stars that filled the great up-side-down bowl of a sky. We noticed the shooting stars and then pointed out certain familiar groups of stars. Then we began to talk about the millions and billions of miles these stars are from us and of miles these stars are from us and from each other, though to us they seemed so close to one another. Presently, the question was asked, "What holds those stars in place? What holds those stars in place: Why don't they fall or bump into one another?" Of course, then, we talked about the law of gravitation (you'll study about that in school if you haven't done so already) and we tried to explain that, but soon we discovered that the easiest and simplest and truest answer was "God." God who created the worlds also gave them a place and a plan, arranging where they should move and how. His hand holds all these heavenly bodies in place. And then came the wonders that the God who makes and holds worlds in His hand can have the time to think about just one small person on one small earth. And yet "God so loved" me, "God so loved" you, each one of us. Isn't it marvelous? Can we ever fail to be grateful that the great God who made and controls all things also sees and loves and answers you and me when we call?

With love,

Mrs. Frances Steele.

BIBLE STORY Paul and Barnabas in Antioch of (Read Acts 13:12-52 and 14:1-7) The missionaries sailed away from Paphos and came to the city of Perga in a country called Asia. There, John Mark left them and returned to Jerusalem but Paul and Parnahas went on to the city of Pernahas went on to the city of Pernahas went on the city of Pernahas went on the city of the city Barnabas went on to the city of Antioch: not that Antioch from Antioch: not that Antioch from which they were first sent out, but another called Antioch in Pisidia. They went to the synagogue on the Sabbath day, and after the reading of the scriptures by the ruler of the synagogue, they were invited to mank. Paul stood up and preached speak. Paul stood up and preached to them about Jesus, telling them that He was the promised Savior who would forgive their sins if they would accept and believe on Him. As they left the synagogue, the people begged Paul and Barnabas to come again the next Sabbath and preach to them. On the next Sabbath almost the whole city came to hear them. When the Jews saw the crowds, they were very jealous and spoke out against the things which Paul said, denying and blaspheming. Then Paul and Barnabas spoke boldly to the Jews, saying, "It was right for us to preach the gospel to you first, but since you will not hear it, and do not care to be saved, we will now preach it to the Gentiles. Cod here speak. Paul stood up and preached you will not hear it, and do not care to be saved, we will now preach it to the Gentiles. God has so commanded us, for He said that Jesus should be a Savior not to the Jesus only, but to all the nations of the world." When the Gentiles heard this, they were glad. But the Jesus stirred up the chief men and the rulers and raised a persecution against Paul and Barnabas, until they drove them out of the city. So Paul and Barnabas went on to the Paul and Barnabas went on to the next city, Iconium. At Iconium, the same thing happened. Many believed but the Jews who refused to believe, stirred up the people and were about to stone Paul and Barnabas. Then they fled to another city, called Lystra, and preached there.

Crystal Springs, Miss. July 8, 1939.

Dear Mrs. Steele: I like the idea of sending money for Chinese relief. I am sending five cents for this cause. It is a small offering and I will try to send more next time.

There isn't much to say this time except that it is hot and going in swimming feels mighty good. Crystal Spring's vacation days will soon be because school starts the first week in August and that's not far off. I have a large number of rel-atives and friends to visit before it begins too. I don't mind its beginning except that it is going to be mighty hot to have to walk four blocks to school at 7:00 in the morning, come home at 12:00 and back at 12:45, then walk home again at 3:15 in the afternoon. That's a good bit of walking in the hottest month of the year, in the heat of the day, isn't it? But after all, school days are good old golden rule days.

I'll end my letter now as I know I'm simply "heating you up."

With love,

Mary Sue Barron.

Mary Sue, you write like a big girl. Don't get grown too fast! I'm home at 12:00 and back at

In the resolutions all pastors were asked to volunteer their services as teachers. On Friday evening, July 7, it was our privilege to have commencement services for the first Daily Vacation Bible school in the recently completed Cary Baptist Church. Due to the untiring efforts of the Baptist people of Cary and under the efficient leadership of Rev. C. C. Carraway, the Deer Creek Association Missionary, this new church has been built. Many days and parts of many nights were spent in labor to make it possible for this Bible school to be held. In order that we might go ahead with the school, chairs were rented and put in the auditorium before pews were purchased. The facilities that we had were rather crude but the spirit of the school and the people as a whole was a good one.

There were only four teachers and workers in the school but each had one department and three of them served as general officers also. They were: Rev. C. C. Carraway, pastor and Junior department superintendent; Sarah Grantham, principal and primary department superintendent; Sarah Pearl Boland, pianist and Intermediate department Superintendent; Emaline Burney, Beginner department superintendent. The average attendance of the school was 38. The lowest number to attend was 37 and the highest 42 which gives us one of the most regular attendances of any of our schools.

Brother Carraway met with the people on Sunday morning, July 9, for the purpose of organizing a Sunday school and for their first church services. On Sunday evening the first baptismal services were held with six being baptized. There were 15 additions to the church by profession of faith.-Sarah Grantham, Tralake, Miss.

· Have You?

Have you sent in the report of your Vacation Bible school? We are surely anxious to have the record of these schools complete for this year in reports, but many, many have not yet sent them in. Will you not, therefore, do this now, while the records are still available, and the facts are still fresh in the mind?

Never have we received such glowing reports of the Vacation school as we are now. Every mail brings them in, and we are now far in excess of what we had this time last year. PLEASE send us yours at once.

If you want a regular blank for the report, drop us a card and one will be sent at once. Or, if you prefer, send on a postal card the facts and figures of your school and we will make the transfer to the regular blank. A full report is so much better though.

> -0-Listen to Soso

This is from Miss Trecie Jefcoats of Soso in Jones County: "This was my first school or study course, but I can truly say I've never enjoyed anything more. I began rather discouraged but after the first morning I knew it was going over. The entire town and community were greatly pleased and expressed the desire for it to continue the full four weeks. We hope to have the full time next year."

This was her first time to direct a Vacation school, but she did it in a great way. The books are so well planned for each day's program that it makes easy the work, even in first year places.

-0-Check Up Now

There are a number of schools in the state that are standard in all points except one or two. These could be reached within a short time by a little extra work on the part of the officers and teachers.

Brother superintendent, please check up on all the ten points and see just how you stand, and then if you are short on one or two, call this to the attention of your workers and get them lined up definitely at the task of reaching them at the very earliest possible date.

The year 1939 is rapidly getting by, and since these run by the calendar year, we must get busy soon if we get in on the list for this year. We are already ahead of last year in standard schools, and we surely want yours to join us in making it even better still.

Do this right now while it is fresh in mind. Application will be gladly sent upon request.

JEHOSAPHAT'S LIFE OF OBEDIENCE

II Chronicles 17:1-12 -0-

Introduction: The section of the life of Jehosaphat which we study today furnishes an illustration of the normal course in life. The picture he presents us in himself is the picture we might expect. In our study of Asa last week, we saw in action the good son of a wicked father, but in Asa's son Jehosaphat, we have a good son following in the footsteps of a good father, and that is the normal and to-be-expected thing. Jehosaphat stands before us as an outstanding man of righteousness who, in an age of unbelief and ungodliness, wholly devoted himself, as a follower of God, to the promotion of the cause of righteous-

I. Jehosaphat's Energetic Course. Vv. 1. 2.

Jehosaphat's father had left the kingdom of Judah stronger than he found it, and the son in consequence had nothing to destroy, but a good foundation upon which to build, since he purposed in his heart to proceed in the direction of his father and pursued. It was not always true that the new king was after the pattern of the old; but a bad king was sometimes followed by a good one, and a good king was sometimes followed by an evil one. Here we have the continuation of a good reign.

In the beginning of the account of him, we are impressed with the energy of Jehosaphat. He saw work to be done in order to fortify the kingdom of Judah against the inroads of the heathenish worship of the northern kingdom, where the calf-worship of Jeroboam was weaning the people from their allegiance to Jehovah. So Asa had taken cities on the border between the two kingdoms and Jehosaphat now strengthened these border cities and garrisoned them against the inroads of the ungodly hordes from the north.

I think we may be very sure that Jehosaphat had as a major objective in all his work of material improvement of his kingdom the religious welfare of his people. Note heaven's response to Jehosaphat's work.

II. Jehovah's Response to Jehosaphat's Course. Vv. 3-5.

When we read that Jehosaphat "Walked in the first ways of his father David," we may be very sure that Jehovah will be with him. And be sure that Jehosaphat and any other man who undertakes to walk in the right ways will need the help of Jehovah. Jehosaphat might easily have walked in the wicked ways, might easily have worshipped the Baalim, might easily have tolerated that form of worship among his people, but he chose the hard heroic course of standing for the right when the standing was difficult. Jehosaphat's reforms bear the mark of genuineness from the circumstance that they sprang from a devotion to religion, and Jehosaphat's God rewarded the king with

The mark of Jehovah's favor upon the king was that God established the kingdom in strength, and caused the king to reign in power and strength. I make no doubt at all that in the midst of all of Jehosaphat's strength, he was strongest in heart, strongest in the knowledge of righteousness of aim, strongest in the consciousness of his loyalty to God. Hence, God established Jehosaphat in strength.

III. Religious Revival Under Jehosaphat. Vv. 6-9.

Revivals of true piety do not "just happen." They are mighty movements which gain their impetus and momentum from adequate causes. Now, here was a king who was minded to do the godly things, to live the righteous life, to point his people to the true God, and to serve Him, the God of his fathers. God honored this course of the young king with marks of signal favor, and we may be sure the king referred these marks of favor to the right cause not only, but that he was quick and earnest in telling his people that the explanation of their prosperity was in the fact that they had served their fathers' God, and Him alone. The people believed their king, and with this belief there grew an eagerness to experience more of the loving favor of God, and this led to a seeking after Him in earnest desire to find Him.

So the king sent teachers throughout the kingdom to teach the people the "Book of the law of Jehovah." These noble teachers taught the word of God all over the kingdom, and the people all over the kingdom attended to the teaching.

Did Jehosaphat know what was coming as a result of this work of teaching the word of God? Well, we, at least know. Revival follows the teaching of the word of God. For when people study the word of God, they get a new conception of the holiness of God, and with this a new conception of the sinfulness of man, of self, a knowledge that God welcomes the seeker after His righteousness and that he will give the sincere seeker pardon and cleansing from his sin.

Revival follows as the fruit of a desire upon the people's part for righteousness from God. Now, true revival comes that way. A fresh realization of the presence and righteousness of God, a fresh realization of the need of God, a renewed willingness to go to the required distance to attain this needed righteousness, and the consequent action upon the strength of this willingness. So came a revival upon Judah, so will come a revival anywhere under like conditions.

IV. Effect of this Revival Upon Jehosaphat's Neighbors. Vv. 10-

"When a man's ways please Jehovah, He maketh even his enemies to be at peace with him." Prov. 16:17.

In Jehosaphat we have a man whom his neighbors came to respect because he dealth firmly with the evil, lived righteously, busied himself with the welfare of his people, walked humbly before his God, and kept himself at all times prepared against possible onslaughts by his enemies. So he gained and maintained the respect of his neighbor nations, so that his country received tribute from the stranger, in whose lips the kingdom received favorable comment, and the land had rest from war. Under such conditions the king and the kingdom waxed great, and the king built cities of store, that is, he had more goods than he could use, so he laid by him in store.

Rev. H. C. Etter, who has recently come to help in presenting Tai-Kam to the Baptists of the North and South and to prominent Chinese in America, is enthusiastic over the opportunities in this field. A recent issue of the Hong Kong South China Morning Post carries a splendid tribute to Tai-Kam from the Far East Merchants Commercial Association. The fact that Dr. Lake secured American incorporation for this missionary station has saved it during these dark days when property and life have been so uncertain in the Orient. The Japanese, because this is an American-incorporated institution, grant free passage to the motor boat "Alice" which plies between the mainland and the island, carrying food and medicines and relief of all kinds to the lepers in the Leprosarium.

Southern Baptists cannot and will not forget that Dr. Lake is their own beloved missionary, responsible for the food and supplies which the little motor boat carried through the war zone week after week and month after month. We will do our part to put on that boat the things necessary to the life and comparative comfort of these "little ones" whom our Lord loves.

A dollar a month from 2,000 friends will take care of the current expense item of the island. How many of us really care enough to send in a dollar a month during these days, addressing our contribution to Dr. John Lake, Georgetown, Kentucky, or John Lake, Incorporated, Hong Kong, China?

HER BABY DIED h Louis J. Bristow, Superintendent

Work of the Southern Baptist lospital in New Orleans is varied. Some time ago I had a letter from student in the Baptist Bible Indute asking me to sell a baby mage to some mother whose baby ight be born in our Hospital. The ent's family was leaving the ely. A letter from a woman in Misippi asked for a prescription rich would rid her house of fleas. father in Alabama asked me to leate his son who had run away hom home, and had told someone expected to come to New Orleans. (Parenthetically: I found him and got him a job.) So it goes.

However, one of the finest types if service we render is in finding omes for homeless babies. Strange s it may seem, not a few mothers ip away, deserting the Hospital, ving their babies with us. Efforts to locate such mothers usually til The babies of unmarried mothes must be cared for, such as come to us from the Women's Emergency me. All in all, we have many ies every year for whom homes est be found. Through a cooperae arrangement with the Protest-Home for Babies and the Juvee Court, we have been able to d homes for all our babies. They are legally adopted by worthy les. I could tell some interesting stories of adoption, but this tory is intended only to illustrate my theme:

A couple long had wanted a child. e prospective mother came to the uthern Baptist Hospital, but her mature babe, as her others, was m dead. The same day a seveneen year old girl from the Emerency Home gave birth to a fine, althy strong nine-pound boy. No matter about the details. It is sufficient to say the girl-mother had an excellent family, social and rerious background, as did also the ather of her child. The bereft mothadopted the waif, and it will be the child of well-to-do, upright, oble parents. The girl-mother knows only that her child is well rovided for. The adopted mother es not know the name or whereabouts of the real mother. There will be no future social complicaons. All three are well servedthe girl, the matron, and the babe. And I believe that is a service worthy of the name Christian. New Orleans, Louisiana. -BR-

WILLIAM D. PITTMAN

-0-On May the 28th after attending ervices at Bethlehem, his home hurch, and leading the opening prayer, brother Pittman quietly fell sleep a few moments after returning to his home.

Brother Pittman was 76 years of age, being the son of the late Henry nd Nancy Holmes Pittman, who were among the pioneer settlers of Montgomery County. He was a lifeong member of the Baptist Church, and up to the time of his death was faithful to his church, being always present if not providentially hindered. He was faithful and loyal to his friends, an affectionate husband and father. The church and community will keenly miss this good man's influence and loyal support.

Brother Pittman is survived by his wife, Mrs. Sue Herring Pittman, and two children: Mrs. Irene Fisackerly of Winona, and Sanford Pittman of Winona. Also a granddaughter, Mrs. Irma Williams of Jackson, a sister, Mrs. Lucy Curtis of Kilmichael, and one brother, J. R. Pittman of Itta Bena.

The funeral services were held in the Bethlehem Baptist Church of which he was a member, on Monday, May 29th, at 3 p. m. The services were conducted by the writer, and attended by a host of sorrowing friends and loved ones. The body was laid to rest in the church cemetery, with beautiful floral offerings, to await the first resurrection at the coming of Jesus for His own .- J. W. Eidson.

The church is deeply grateful for the services of Rev. and Mrs. H. G. Rushing of Collierville, Tenn. This is the second year they have served as teachers in our training work. By unselfish devotion to their work, their pleasing and delightful personalities, and their unsurpassed efficiency they have won a permanent place in the hearts of the community.

Prophets who have honor in their own country are our dearly loved pastor and his wonderful wife, Rev. and Mrs. E. C. Horton. They, too, have in the past contributed greatly to our B.T.U. work in the way of instructors.

Brother Horton led the B.A.U. in its subject, "Building A Christian Home." For the five nights of study the adults had an average of 10 with 13 taking the examination from an enrollment of 16. Mrs. Rushing taught the seniors, "Winning Others to Christ." This union averaged 14 for the week with 13 taking the test from an enrollment of 14.

Brother Rushing taught, "Training In Bible Study," to unions one and two of Intermediates. Their attendance was 24 with 21 taking the examination from 40 enrolled.

The Juniors were led by Mrs. Horton in "Bible Heroes." From an enrollment of 22 there were 18 taking the test. Average attendance was 20.

We had 66 to take the examinations, an average attendance of 68 with the largest number present on any one night 74 from a total B. T. U. enrollment of 92. This does not count our thriving Story Hour group of 12. At times our attendance goes well over 100 present. Our church membership is 200. This work was done a month ago and we have grown since and are continuing to improve and expand all the time.-Mrs. Chas. P. Dockery, Jr., B.T.U. Director.

-0-Miss Dorothy Kennedy has just finished having three very successful training courses and Daily Vacation Bible schools in our county. She taught one course, "Building A Standard Sunday School," and had a Bible school in a Mission Sunday school out from Carrollton. She also taught the same book along with the Bible school in Jefferson and Poplar Springs Baptist Churches.

Miss Myrtis Haynie has just finished having a training course in the Black Hawk Baptist Church with grand results. She will be at the Harmony Church for the week of July 17-23 and in Acy Church for the week of July 24-30, teaching Sunday "Building A Standard School" and having a Bible school in both places.

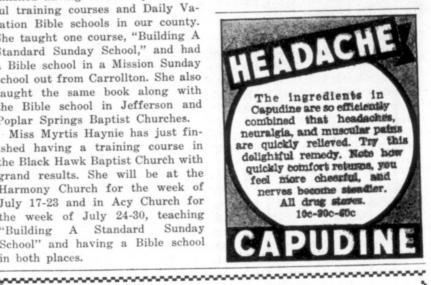

Brother Chastain of Lexington assisted brother Sellers in a meeting at Black Hawk during this (July 9-16) week. The meeting was closed Friday night with 12 additions.

We have just completed a religious census in North Carrollton and we find that our Sunday school enrollment can be almost doubled. Plans are being made now to organize an Extension Department and get out and get all the Baptists in our school.

Mr. E. C. Williams will be in the North Carrollton church during the week of August 13-19 to teach "Building A Standard Sunday School."-Earl Waldrup.

CONCORD BAPTIST CHURCH, RANKIN COUNTY O. L. Byrd, Pastor

The revival meeting began here July 16th, running through Thursday evening, July 20th. Brother C. C. Jones of Mendenhall did the preaching. He is a very able servant of God and did some real Gospel preaching. The attendance was very good although weather conditions were most unfavorable. The average attendance of our Sunset prayer service was eighty.

There were nine additions to the church. Three came by letter and six for baptism. One was a young mother and five from the Sunday school.

Brother G. S. Ware, a member and deacon, was director of the music, except at the Thursday morning service when a special service was conducted for the young people in which they directed the music and singing.

We are so thankful for the interest our young people are taking and we feel that we have all been greatly revived and strengthened.—M. E. T., Reporter.

BOGUE CHITTO

Bogue Chitto Baptist Church has just closed its annual revival. God still answers prayer and blesses honest, sincere effort put forth in His kingdom work. The pastor, Rev. M. J. Anderson, together with members of the church, held several cottage prayer meetings as preparation for the revival. The pastor also spent much time visiting in all homes in the community getting acquainted with the people and inviting them to the services. As a result of the efforts put forth attendance at both services, 6:30 a. m. and 7:45 p. m. was far beyond expectation and there was evidence that the Holy Spirit was present in power. Many lives were rededicated to God's service and eleven additions were made to the church, eight by baptism and three by letter. Dr. S. H. Jones, pastor of Brookhaven Baptist Church, assisted Rev. Anderson. At each service in his earnest, straightforward and unassuming way, Dr. Jones brought wonderful messages which went home with force to the hearts of his hearers. In a logical and systematic way the first messages of the week were presented to Christians stirring them from lethargy into a desire for activitywhile leading them to see a clearer vision of the relationship of the individual Christian to God, to the church, and to the lost of the neglected masses of humanity which Christ came to save, but which many Christians who are loyal to the church otherwise, are falling short in contacting for Christ.

Messages delivered during the latter part of the week were designated mainly to show to the lost the plain way of salvation.

The results of this revival will be far-reaching and permanent as the deep under-current of the Holy Spirit has been felt and will continue to move, furthering God's work here in a quiet, unobtrusive way in this community.—A Member.

PASCAGOULA

The Daily Vacation Bible school held at the First Baptist Church, Pascagoula, was a success in every way, in spite of continual inclement weather during the six-day session. Great interest and wonderful cooperation from both teacher and pupil were displayed, which manifestations meant splendid achievements.

There was an enrollment of 130, with an average attendance of 111. Forty-nine pupils and twenty-eight teachers were accredited perfect attendance. Three young people made professions of faith.

Mrs. J. H. Colle served as principal of the school and each department superintendent had seven or more diligent workers. Commencement exercises were held on the last night after which program the congregation visited the departments where there were many displays of the pupils' achievements. Wonderful training was offered the boys and girls who seemed to love every phase of D.V.B.S. The offering taken at the commencement exercises is to be sent to the Baptist Bible Institute for an interest obligation which is due August 1st.

Here is a paragraph from the Watchman Examiner that carries us back to boyhood. Miss Sallie Stein was a member of a church of which the Editor's father, Rev. J. W. Lipsey, was pastor many years ago. Two members of Mt. Zion Church in Tate County were deeply interested in her mission to China, and helped in her support. These were Mrs. Daniel Burford and Mrs. John Maxville. Mrs. Burford was the grandmother of Mr. P. M. B. Self. Mrs. Maxville was the grandmother of two of our young preachers, Revs. Merrill D. Moore and John A. Moore, the latter now a missionary in Jugoslavia. Mrs. Maxville also has a daughter who is a missionary in Burmah, Miss Selma Maxville. Here is the paragraph from The Watchman Examiner: Miss Sarah Elizabeth Stein, who served in the Canton, China, area as a missionary 1879-1889 under appointment of the Southern Convention Foreign Mission Board, died in Oakland, California, June 22. She was compelled to return to this country because of the condition of her health and served for 20 years as missionary to the Chinese in Fresno, California, under appointment of the Home Mission Society. She raised and educated two Chinese girls, one of whom was the first Chinese to graduate from the Fresno high school. Miss Stein's life was one of sacrifice and devotion to the cause of Christ and the missionary enter-

REVIVAL AT KREOLE

It was my joyous privilege to be back in my home state recently for two revivals. One at Kreole, Mississippi, and the other at Enterprise. I was delighted to find a great revival spirit throughout the state and a fine spirit of cooperation among the people.

The meeting at Kreole with my brother, S. E. Nix pastor, was a glorious one. The pastor and people were well prepared for the meeting. The pastor was at his best physically and spiritually. The people were on fire for lost souls and ready to do all they could for the promotion of the Lord's cause. The meeting ran through a period of seven days, and there were 23 added to the church—twenty by profession of faith and three by letter. There were several waiting baptism which shows that the church is winning souls not only during revival meetings, all through the year.

The church at Kreole will not be two years old until this coming October, and they have about a hundred members and are running full time. They are planning to build on to the present building which is already too small to take care of their needs. The pastor organized the church two years ago this October, and is doing a fine work. His people are loyal and love him dearly.

May the Lord bless and keep you faithful.—D. W. Nix.

SILVER SPRINGS REVIVAL CLOSES

The revival meeting closed Friday night at Silver Springs Baptist Church with one of the most successful evangelistic efforts in the history of the church culminating in at least sixteen additions to the membership, with eleven of that number coming on profession of faith asking to be baptized into full fellowship of the church.

The revival meeting was preceded by a Daily Vacation Bible school with an average attendance of thirty-five. The Bible school did much to prepare the church for the revival meeting that followed. Rev. J. F. McCelland of Enon, Louisiana was the visiting preacher, and his work was blessed in a mighty way. The pastor at Silver Springs, brother H. M. Kinlaw, says that the church is stronger spiritually now than it has been in the years that he has been there.—K.

RIDGE CHURCH

The Daily Vacation Bible school held at Ridge Baptist Church, taught by Alton Gatewood of Clarke Memorial College, was a success. It seems that the Holy Spirit was shed abroad on us. There were about 40 or 50 regular attendance during the two full weeks. Brother Alton Gatewood left us Saturday to take up another school.

We pray God's blessings on him everywhere he goes. We think he is a fine young man. Our revival begins the 4th Sunday in July, the preaching to be done by the pastor, Jodie L. Moore.—S. F. Ladd.

The total amount of the offering

The total amount of the offering is $2.62 which is enclosed in the form of a check. The D.V.B.S. asked me to send the money through the Children's Page so they could read about it.

Very truly yours, (Miss) Mamie Buckley, Principal.

Miss Mamie, we are grateful to you and the children for this of fering to the orphanage and for allowing it to go through the Children's Circle. Children really love to give, especially when they have the right inspiration. We'd like to thank every child personally who had a part in this.—F. L. S.
